

ROOTED IN THE PAST, TARGETING THE FUTURE

Alanya Alaaddin Keykubat (ALKU) was established in 2015 as a state university in Alanya. With more than 10.000 students, the university has been growing rapidly since its establishment. ALKU aims to provide qualified higher education in an international learning environment. With its 8 faculties (Business, Engineering, Medicine, Education, Tourism, Sport Sciences, Health Sciences, Dentistry), 3 graduate institutes (Social Sciences, Natural Sciences, Health Sciences) and 5 vocational schools, the university offers variety of associate, undergraduate and graduate degrees. The language of instruction at ALKU is Turkish and English. Some programs are fully in English. Moreover, students have many academic options like double major or minor degrees, summer schools, and transfers to higher education institutions in Turkey.

LOCATION

Located 135 km east of Antalya province center in Mediterranean region, Alanya is a major tourism destination in the Turkish Riviera with several natural, historical and cultural attractions. ALKU is the first State University in Turkey that is located in a city other than the province center, which shows the importance of Alanya and its potentials.

Transportation to Alanya is easy by international and domestic flights to Gazipaşa-Alanya Airport (40 minutes by bus) and Antalya International Airport (2 hours by bus). There are also buses arriving to Alanya bus terminal from all major cities of Turkey.

STUDENT LIFE

Based in a paradise-like holiday region, ALKU attaches much importance to the social and cultural life of its students including, the Spring Festival, student clubs, environmental and technical trips, training seminars, conferences, concerts, exhibitions, job fairs, entrepreneurship contests, sport activities, etc.

Accommodation opportunities for students include State dormitories, student-friendly accommodation facilities and many apart-hotels

INTERNATIONALIZATION

Representing international city of Alanya, ALKU gives the highest importance to the internationalization. Within this context, ALKU aims to develop an internationalization strategy that is appropriate for the provisions of education, training, research and services in a systematic way. A central part of this strategy is based on our international students who come from every part of the world to study here. Currently ALKU has around 300 international students from 50 different countries and we expect a rapid increase in this number in near future.

ALKU- INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS OFFICE (IRO)

The International Relations Office (IRO) provides a wide-ranging support service for key aspects of Alanya Alaaddin Keykubat University's internationalization strategy. International Office has key responsibilities for the development and following of the University's internationalization strategy. The main study fields of the International Relations Office are:

- International Students
- Erasmus+ Exchange Program (KA103)
- International Collaborations
- Free Mover Exchange Program
- Mevlana Exchange Program
- Farabi Exchange Program
- European Voluntary Service (EVS)

ERASMUS EXCHANGE PROGRAM

Erasmus+ program aims to boost skills and employability, as well as modernizing Education, Training, and Youth work. Erasmus+ will provide opportunities for over 4 million Europeans to study, train, gain work experience and volunteer abroad. Erasmus+ will support transnational partnerships among Education, Training, and Youth institutions and organizations to foster cooperation and bridge the worlds of Education and work to tackle the skills gaps we are facing in Europe. It will also support national efforts to modernize Education, Training, and Youth systems.

EURODESK CONSULTANCY

Eurodesk is an international nonprofit association created in 1990. As a support organization to Erasmus+, Eurodesk makes information on learning mobility comprehensive and accessible to young people and those who work with them. With a network of national coordinators connected to over 1000 local information providers in 35 European countries, Eurodesk raises awareness on learning mobility opportunities and encourages young people to become active citizens. Eurodesk is the main source of youth information on European policies, mobility information and opportunities. It answers enquiries and provides guidance for mobile young people across Europe. Eurodesk updates and manages content on the European Youth Portal, it also answers enquiries coming from the Portal.

MEVLANA EXCHANGE PROGRAM

Mevlana Exchange Program is a program which aims the exchange of students and academic staff between the Turkish higher education institutions and higher education institutions of other countries. With the regulation published in August 23, 2011, students and academic staff exchange between Turkish higher education institutions and higher education institutions of other countries has been possible. Different from other exchange programs, Mevlana Exchange Program includes all higher education institutions in the world regardless of their region.

FARABI EXCHANGE PROGRAM

Farabi is an exchange program of students (at associate, bachelor, masters or doctorate levels) as well as teaching staff members among the Turkish higher education institutions, including universities and institutes of technology. Farabi Exchange Program's aim is that university students and teaching staff members participate in education and training at a higher education institution other than their own during a period of one or two semesters.

FREE MOVER EXCHANGE PROGRAM

As part of the Free Mover program, students who are engaged in free education at the associate degree, undergraduate degree, master's degree or doctorate degree level at ALKU or a university abroad can study at ALKU or at another university for one term or one academic year as a guest student by paying a term or annual fee to their own university and to the host university. As distinct from other student exchange programs, students who want to study at a university abroad as part of the Free Mover program must contact the university they want to attend directly for information about the programs for which they wish to apply, and for details about the documentation required. Students using this program shall be responsible for all travel and accommodation expenses, and any fees demanded by the student's own university and the university which they would like to attend. It is better to know that Free Movers cannot attain a degree from ALKU.

EUROPEAN VOLUNTARY SERVICE

EVS (European Voluntary Service) is an international volunteer program funded by the European Commission. It enables all young people legally resident in Europe, aged between 18 and 30 years, to carry out an international volunteer service in an organization or in a public body in Europe, Africa, Asia or South America for a period ranging from 2 to 12 months. It provides the reimbursement of travel expenses and complete coverage of the costs of food and accommodation for the international volunteer.
